Noblis Wins Prime Contract with U.S. Army National Guard

Noblis-led Team to support United States Army National Guard's Independent Validation and Verification/Program Management Office

FALLS CHURCH, Va.—July 6, 2011—Noblis, Inc., a leading provider of science, technology, and strategy services to the federal government, was awarded a Prime contract for the United States Army National Guard's Independent Validation and Verification/Program Management Office/Technical Science and Engineering Support and Acquisition Support contract.

Under this five-year multiple award contract Noblis will provide systems engineering, technical support, and Independent Verification and Validation (IV&V) services supporting a wide-range of systems engineering and technical assistance requirements.

“The Army National Guard is an important client for Noblis and we are honored to have been selected to support them in our expanded role as prime contractor,” says Drew Cohen, Vice President of National Security and Intelligence, Noblis. “This win demonstrates Noblis’ ability to stand out against a strong competitive field. We are proud that the National Guard recognizes the Noblis team’s systems engineering, IV&V, and technical expertise and our ability to deliver innovation and practical solutions. We look forward to addressing the National Guard’s technical needs and continuing to support them in their important mission.”

Noblis provides expert technical and advisory services in systems engineering, science and technology, program management, and acquisition services to government and industry. We work in essential areas, such as national security, transportation, healthcare, environmental sustainability, and enterprise services, to solve complex scientific, systems, process, and infrastructure problems in ways that benefit the public. In addition to supporting the U.S. Army National Guard, we are honored to support organizations with critical national responsibility, including the Department of Homeland Security, Federal Aviation Administration, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Department of Labor, and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.
